

KANAWHA VALLEY

We Live in a Very Cool, Connected Community!

Sustainability Fair

Saturday, May 30

Habitat for Humanity ReStore
815 Young St., Charleston
10 am - 5 pm

Celebrate YOUR HOME on Planet Earth!

OVER 75 EXHIBITS & SPEAKERS!

12 NOON PROGRAM

- Doris Fields & Charleston Blues Society
- Company Bicycle Repair Advice 1 pm

FOOTMAD Community Music Jam 3 pm – bring your instruments!

- Watch ProStart Young Chefs in Training at Ferguson's Bath & Kitchen Gallery 10 am - 1 pm
- Home Weatherization Demonstrations
- Massage therapy on the spot!
- The No Pants Players perform!

WHAT TO BRING FOR DONATION/REUSE

Tools for Habitat for Humanity, Family Games, Art Supplies, Books, Videos, CDs and Musical Instruments for Step By Step

SPECIAL OFF-SITE ATTRACTIONS

- Critical Mass Bike Ride, May 29, 6 pm, ReStore
- Jeff Barrie ("Kilowatt Ours"), May 29, 7:30 pm, Taylor Books
- YOGA, May 30, 8:30-10 am on Magic Island (UUC 520 Kanawha Blvd W if rain)

Walk through Downtown to visit our partners: Kanawha County Library, Taylor Books, Stray Dog Antiques, Art Emporium, The Consignment Company, Charleston Bread, The Convenience Store, Purple Onion, and other local businesses.

THANKS TO OUR MANY SUPPORTERS & CONTRIBUTORS:

The Sustainable Kanawha Valley Initiative, Hunter/Miller+Associates, Habitat for Humanity of Kanawha & Putnam County, Step By Step, Bryan Boyd Creative Group, WV Dept. of Environmental Protection, Ignite Studio, Mountain State Education & Research Foundation, Capitol Conservation District, the WV Land Group, the Unitarian Universalist Congregation, Charleston Area Alliance, Ferguson's Bath, Kitchen & Lighting Gallery, Folded Leaf Yoga, Critical Mass, Fazio's, BB&T and United Way.

